

BRAXTON NEATE

Braxton Neate is a passionate cello teacher, with music degrees and qualification in the Suzuki Talent Education Method of cello teaching. Braxton completed his undergraduate and postgraduate studies at the Queensland Conservatorium, where he studied cello with Mei-Lee and Markus Stocker. His studies in string pedagogy were with Elizabeth Morgan AM. Braxton has a Bachelor of Music (cello) and Master of Music Studies, majoring in cello performance. Braxton completed his primary level Suzuki Talent Education certification in Brisbane with Belinda Manwaring and is currently working towards gaining his Intermediate and Advanced certification.

Braxton currently maintains a large class of cello students in Brisbane where he is the Head of Teaching and Strings at the Browning Street Studios. He also teaches cello and directs the Junior String Ensemble at Ipswich Grammar School and teaches in the Suzuki programme at Saint Stephen's College on the Gold Coast.

From 2017, Braxton has also joined the faculty of the Suzuki Cello Institute Australia at the invitation of its Director, Takao Mizushima. Prior to his joining the faculty, Braxton had been a regular attendee and tutor at various NSW Suzuki events. Braxton is a tutor for the Suzuki Cello Choir, a cello-only orchestra. He is the lead tutor and conductor for both the Junior and Intermediate ensembles. From July 2017, Braxton will also be teaching musicianship classes. In addition to his teaching roles at the Suzuki Cello Institute, Braxton also teaches at the Lane Cove music and Cultural Centre.

Braxton also serves on the Queensland Council of the Suzuki Talent Association of Australia and is a former state committee member of the Australian Strings Association (AUSTA). With a special dedication to teaching, Braxton is mostly found teaching his students, but at other times, can be found performing. He has previously recorded for ABC Radio and Television, and was the co-founder of Ensemble Fabrique. Currently, Braxton is becoming in increasing demand as cello teacher in Sydney, and plans to continue expanding his New South Wales studio.

braxton.neate
@gmail.com

0409 514 881

[https://www.facebook.com/
braxtonneatecellostudio/](https://www.facebook.com/braxtonneatecellostudio/)

EDUCATION

Queensland Conservatorium, Griffith University

Bachelor of Music (cello), Master of Music Studies (cello performance)

Suzuki Talent Education Primary Certificate

Queensland Suzuki Association